LEWIS & CLARK TRAIL PIECE FEATURES NEW U.S. MINT NICKEL

WOOSTER, OH – Faline, creator of Cat's Meow, has unveiled the first piece in a new history-embracing Historic Trails & Waterways series entitled, Lewis and Clark Trail. With its attention to details and symbols synonymous with the journey along the westward trail, this piece is sure to catch the attention of history buffs everywhere. This piece features the new Westward Journey nickel released by the U.S. mint.

This piece is 4-1/2"H x 6-1/2"W and retails for around $15.00. Available at retailers beginning April 1, 2004. Other pieces will be released in the Historic Trails & Waterways in June 2004.

About Cat's Meow

The Cat's Meow® Village has been building memories with its miniature, wooden, handcrafted buildings and accessories for over 20 years. Many pieces commemorate historic structures and points of interest. "Casper," the trademark black cat, signifies the authenticity of Village products and can be found on each piece, along with the signature of Faline Fry Jones, creator of The Cat's Meow® Village.

Village enthusiasts find gratification in purchasing pieces that not only add to the warmth of their décor, but also preserve a favorite destination or time. There are over 1,000 Cat's Meow retailers in 50 states nationwide and a Cat's Meow piece that touches everyone's life. Each piece is handcrafted in the United States.
