DRESSED FOR AN AFTERNOON TEA

WOOSTER, OH – “I’m dressed for tea, from head to toe, friends join me too, it’s just for show. We gather here, we gather there, we have so much fun, with lots of flair.” This is the fun back description on the Dressed for Tea Snowman that Faline, creator of Cat’s Meow, has introduced. Every now and then it’s fun to dress up and play a little. The Dressed for Tea Snowman is outfitted in her cute red hat and ready for an afternoon tea with friends. Each piece is 5-1/4”H by 3-1/4”W and sells for approximately $12.00 each. Introduced in August 2004 with no scheduled retirement date.

The Cat’s Meow[®] Village has been building memories with its miniature, wooden, handcrafted buildings and accessories for over 20 years. Many pieces commemorate historic structures and points of interest. “Casper,” the trademark black cat, signifies the authenticity of Village products and can be found on each piece, along with the signature of Faline Fry Jones, creator of The Cat’s Meow[®] Village.

Village enthusiasts find gratification in purchasing pieces that not only add to the warmth of their décor, but also preserve a favorite destination or time. With more than 30,000 designs created, there is a Cat’s Meow piece that touches everyone’s life.
