SEPTEMBER 2004

CLUB MEMBERS “BAKE” A SPECIAL VISIT TO MOM FRY’S HOUSE

WOOSTER, OH – Every family has special memories and unique recipes that capture the flavor of their family’s past and present generations. Faline, creator of Cat’s Meow, has cooked up a special treat and is sharing a little bit of her heritage with collectors through a special series called, Taste of the Generations. The first in this series was Grandma Mullet’s Home and was introduced earlier this year. The second piece in this series is Mom Fry’s House and the recipe for Mom’s Cocoa Drop Cookies is featured on the back of this piece. Faline remembers these cookies smelling so good baking and they were almost gone before they had a chance to cool. The pieces in this series are only available to members of The Cat’s Meow® Collectors Club®.

Mom Fry’s House is 3-3/8”H x 5”W and retails for around $13.00. Available for shipping in July and can be purchased through April 15, 2005.

The club is celebrating 15 years, so check out the Cat’s Meow website each month where there will be a random drawing and fifteen special Cat’s Meow gifts will be given away. Reminisce all year long as special memories from the last fifteen years are pulled from the pages of time. For more information on The Cat’s Meow® Collectors Club® visit www.catsmeow.com/club or call 888-353-3744.
